

NEW STATE FISH
AND GAME LAWSMeasure Is Most Comprehensive Ever Enacted In Wisconsin

The fish and game bill which was signed by Gov. Philipp last week is the most comprehensive measure on the subject ever enacted in Wisconsin. Among important changes are:

Nonresident fishermen must pay a license fee of $1 and coupons attached permit the shipments. A coupon must accompany each shipment of fish.

The bill allows a nonresident female to fish without a license, but if she desires to make any shipment of fish she must have a license.

Resident hook and line fishermen need not take a license, but are limited to shipments within the state, and to ship outside the state must get a permit. This provision is also designed as a check on "pot" fishermen.

The season for black bass fishing, which formerly opened May 31, will hereafter open June 15, except that in a few inland lakes Oswego or green bass may be caught after May 29. This provision is incorporated to preserve the fish during the spawning, it having been demonstrated that black bass caught on or about June 1 were still filled with spawn. This bill also prevents the sale of black bass.

In commercial fishing the important change is the legal size of trout, whitefish and perch. It will be unlawful to ship whitefish of less than thirteen inches in length, trout less than twelve, and perch less than eight. This feature resulted in a protracted debate. The state is spending thousands of dollars for hatchery trout and whitefish, and this provision, in the opinion of Mr. Everett, will conserve the fish until they mature. The mesh of nets for fishing clubs on the Great Lakes was placed at two and one-half inches, while that for taking trout and whitefish was placed at four inches.

The license fee on all commercial fishermen was increased slightly. A separate resolution was passed petitioning congress to have the federal government take over the supervision of the fish industry on the Great Lakes.

The "one buck" law was repealed and in its place a provision was incorporated permitting the shooting of one deer of either sex. The season has been shortened ten days. This will meet the objections raised by the hunters to the one buck law.

The muskrat season has been left practically as before. The shooting of partridges has been prohibited for two years while the opening and closing of the rabbit season was provided for to meet the requirements of each county.

The open season for ducks and aquatic fowls was specified in the new bill from Sept. 7 to Dec. 10. Heretofore duck hunters were not allowed to shoot until sunrise, but under the bill passed they will be permitted to shoot thirty minutes before sunrise. The provision was asked for by the leading duck hunters of the state.

There was probably no bill that received more complete discussion than the fish and game measure. The provisions of the bill become effective as soon as the measure has been signed and published.

BEE KEEPERS TO MEET IN ANTIGO

Two big days with a real intellectual treat are in store for bee men of Langlade county and adjoining counties Friday and Saturday, July 13 and 14. Prof. E. D. Ball, State Entomologist and Prof. H. F. Wilson of the College of Agriculture in charge of bees will be in Langlade county to give talks and make inspections of apiaries. The first day will be spent in visiting apiaries in and about Antigo. This will give each owner a chance to ask first hand questions while the bee experts are right among his swarms. The field meeting which has developed into an annual event will be held on Saturday at James Cher's Honey and Bee Farm just south of the city limits on the Chamberlain road.

Sessions are scheduled for both morning and afternoon. A basket lunch will be served at noon. Each family attending is asked to bring sufficient lunch for its needs and one extra. Hot coffee will be provided.

AT FAMILY REUNION
C. Eby is in Sheboygan attending a reunion of the Eby family in the old homestead where Mr. Eby was born.

LIMIT ON GAME
FISH SHIPMENTS

Non-residents will only be allowed to ship three shipments of fish from the state under the new laws which go into effect on July 20, according to the instructions received by Conservation Warden S. J. Gwilt. The new licenses are yellow and have three coupons attached each entitling the bearer to one shipment of fish.

Each coupon authorizes the shipment of 20 pounds of fish or two fish of any weight or 50 pounds if accompanied. After these three shipments no more fish can be sent out and a fine of $50 may be imposed for the purchase of a second license.

The new licenses, printed on yellow paper, can be obtained from any game warden in exchange for the white one now in use.

Residents of the state are not allowed to ship fish from the state at any time and a fine of $20 may be imposed for violations of the law.

DEATH TAKES MONICO MAN

The death of Ed. Sucke occurred at St. Mary's hospital at Rhinelander at eleven o'clock Sunday night. The deceased has been ailing for the last few years and recently had been failing fast.

Mr. Sucke and family resided here for several years and has a wide acquaintance who will be stricken to know of his death.

Mr. Sucke was forty-one years of age and leaves to mourn four children, Edward, Albert, Evelyn and Laura, the youngest four years old. Mother and sister Mrs. J. Greene of Antigo.

He was buried Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock from the residence, mass being held the following morning at St. James church.

During the hours of trial and profound sorrow the relatives have the sincere sympathy of the whole community.

SHOOT'S SELF
WHILE HUNTING

While hunting Monday evening in the vicinity of Highland View, the new addition in the western part of the city, Quin Nettling, age 19, accidentally shot himself. The young man was resting, with his gun behind him, when he saw a woodchuck. As he reached for his weapon it discharged, the shot entering his groin and causing an ugly wound. Mr. Nettling was taken to St. Mary's hospital for surgical attention. No bad results are anticipated but it will require a number of weeks for the wound to heal.

Mr. Nettling is the son of W. F. Nettling, of the Nettling-Gahler company, which concern owns Highland View addition.

LOSES FINGERS ON FACTORY SAW

Hayden Mathews, who is a member of the Rhinelander Band, lost three fingers on his right hand while operating a saw in the plant of the Rhinelander Refrigerator company Monday. He is a patient in St. Mary's hospital.

Mathews' accident is particularly unfortunate as it will handicap him in his musical work. He is a piccolo player and the loss of his fingers will prevent him from playing that instrument again.

HEINZ CARNIVAL
HERE MONDAY

Soon after the Heth shows canceled their date here Mayor Clark granted another license to the Ed. L. Heinz Greater Shows to exhibit in this city during the week of Monday, July 16.

This company is said to consist of 14 first class attractions and riding devices. A balloon ascension is a daily free feature. The shows will be located on the south side.

GUN CLUB SCORE

Three tied for high score in the weekly shoot of the Rhinelander Gun club Sunday. Dr. H. L. Garner, Joe Schooley and R. L. Corey each shot 24 out of a possible 25. J. J. Reardon made 23 and Ronald Reardon, T. C. Wood, L. A. Craft and Thomas Lawrence tied for third place, their score being 21.

COMPANY L WILL ENTER
FEDERAL SERVICE SUNDAY

On July 15, next Sunday, Company L of this city will be called into federal service. It is believed that the company will be ordered to Camp Douglas shortly after, possibly within forty-eight hours. At any rate there is little doubt but that the company will be in camp by end of the month.

When seen this afternoon Captain F. H. Himes said he had received no orders regarding the movements of his company and knew nothing definite at this time.

Await Federal Call
Wisconsin National guard troops are ready for federal service.

The proclamation by President Wilson which calls the Wisconsin soldiers into federal service July 15, found Adj. Gen. Holway prepared to turn over this state's fighting force without a moment's delay. If the order comes the troops will be on their way to Camp Douglas within twenty-four hours.

The following organizations are awaiting the call:

The First Infantry brigade, consisting of three regiments, which will be commanded by Brig. Gen. Charles B. Boardman, already commissioned by Gov. E. L. Philipp.

The Second Infantry brigade, consisting of three regiments, which will be commanded by Col. Randolph A. Richards of Sparta, soon to be commissioned brigadier general.

One regiment of artillery.
One regiment of cavalry.
One battalion of signal corps troops.

One battalion of engineers.
Two field hospital companies.
Two ambulance corps.

Following the president's proclamation Adj. Gen. Holway has issued an order to company commanders to keep their troops in readiness. Until July 15 the men will be members of the National guard. After that date they will be members of the federal force, and will be under the direction of the federal staff and will draw federal pay.

WANT WOODSMEN FOR NEW ARMY

Lumberjacks Asked To Help
Uncle Sam With Saws
And Axes

Rhinelander lumberjacks and woodsmen have an opportunity to serve their country with their axes and saws rather than guns. Volunteers for the regiment of woodsmen which is being raised by the U. S. Forestry service are being sought in Rhinelander.

Axmen, teamsters, wood sawyers and all-around woodsmen are particularly wanted. Cooks, blacksmiths, master boilers, engine repair men and saddlers are also being sought.

Six companies of 164 men each are to be raised, in addition to the commissioned officers and aides. Two training camps are being opened, one at Washington D. C. and the other at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

Eighteen portable sawmills will be opened by the regiment in the French forests and these men will furnish the lumber for the allied armies. The forests in France are mostly spruce and fir and the timber is between 10 and 14 inches. The work there will be practically the same as in the lumber camps of this country.

The first thing the men are taught is military discipline. They will be uniformed and equipped the same as other soldiers and all drills and maneuvers will be given as preliminary work.

Salaries ranging from $37 to $61.20 are paid privates and non-commissioned officers. The salaries start from the date of enlistment and all transportation expenses to training camps is paid.

CONFIRMS 14

Rev. Carl J. Silfversten of the Swedish Lutheran church confirmed a class of fourteen girls and boys Sunday. The membership of the church also enlarged by ten that day, making a congregation of one hundred and eighty-two.

Since assuming the pastorate of the church Rev. Silfversten has worked tirelessly for its welfare and through his efforts has greatly increased the membership.

BUY CHAUTAUQUA
TICKETS NOW

Chautauqua tickets are now being sold by Rhinelander business men and other people who have entered the campaign to dispose of 500 paste boards. The price of season tickets is adults $2.00 and children $1.00.

The Chautauqua, under the auspices of the Lincoln people will be here July 27 to August 1 inclusive.

WILL AID MISS LUSK
George S. Clancy of Stoughton has been retained to defend Miss Grace Lusk, Waukesha, charged with the murder of Mrs. David Roberts, wife of Dr. David Roberts former state veterinarian.

ROBBINS AGREES TO DROP ACTION

Will Allow Stevens To Get
Bonus If Amount Is Made
$10,000

A regular adjourned meeting of the city council was held Tuesday evening. A list of bills was allowed. Frank Pecor's bill for $100 for revising the ordinances was referred to the ordinance committee. Dan Noble, Robert Caldwell and John Strangstad. Months ago Alderman Pecor presented a bill of $250 for this same work. Now it is down to $100. It is a case of the bill growing smaller with age.

F. S. Robbins appeared before the council and said he would withdraw his injunction against the bonus to the Stevens Lbr. Co. if the council would change the amount from fifteen thousand to ten thousand, which was done. Ed. Dovey was granted a license to run a billiard and pool room on Thayer street.

Attorney O'Melia was before the council to secure a license for J. W. Bischoff of Stevens Point to run a system of bill boards. The license was fixed at $100. Mr. O'Melia tried to get it fixed at $25.00 which was rejected. It is hardly known whether Mr. Bischoff will take out the license or not.

Chief of Police Maurice Straub was granted a permission to attend the meeting of chiefs at Kenosha. The council gave the board of review authority to employ a stenographer when needed.

The Nettling-Gahler Co. asked to plot Highland View Addition which was referred to a committee which will report at the next council meeting.

It was voted to send the mayor, city attorney, city treasurer and seven other representatives to the meeting of municipalities at Racine to secure the meeting one year hence for Rhinelander.

ACTRESS - FARMER
READY FOR WORK

The following pertaining to Miss Bly Brown, a popular young actress who is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Coon of this city, appeared in a recent issue of the Chicago Herald:

Actresses are "doing their bit" in these days of household economy and produce conservation. Here, for instance, is Bly Brown, who, with Adele Ardley, has selected a patch of ground on the North Side, near Streeterville, and is cultivating it assiduously. The young women are members of the "Show of Wonders" company at the Palace Music Hall. Miss Brown was reared on a farm in northern Wisconsin on the shores of the Lac du Flambeau, so she is no novice when it comes to truck farming.

Miss Ardley, although new to the work, has become quite adept, it is said. When the produce is out of the ground they are going to sell it and devote the proceeds to the war cause or give the vegetables away to some charitable organization.

COMPANY L MAY
TRAIN IN SOUTH

Troops May Be Sent From
Camp Douglas To Concentration Camp

Briefly, as the matter of moving to Camp Douglas stands now, the troops will be called out as soon as a sufficient supply of tents can be secured. The adjutant general says the necessary tentage must come from the government because there is none in the market that the government has not taken over. If the tentage arrives in time for mobilizing on July 15, the troops will be in camp on or about that date. If not, the movement will be delayed until the tents can be obtained.

There is absolutely no reliable information as to what will be done with the Wisconsin troops after a period of seasoning at Camp Douglas. The general belief among the officers is that the various regiments will be detailed to concentration camps in the south.

How long they may be detained there also is a matter of pure conjecture. It is believed that the duration of the training in the south will depend largely upon the course of events in Europe. The big men of the allies, ever since the missions came to the country, have been urging that American troops in large numbers be sent to France as soon as possible, not to be forwarded to the firing line, but to be drilled at points in touch with the allied armies.

The president's call, as Rhinelander military men understood it, involves 12,000 Wisconsin men besides the 4,000 already in the federal service. The units to move when the tents are supplied are six regiments of infantry, one of artillery, one of cavalry, one battalion of engineers, one signal battalion, two field hospital companies and two ambulance companies.

STRANGER LOSES
LEGS UNDER CAR

Arne Jensen, a stranger in Rhinelander, lost both legs Tuesday night when he fell under the wheels of a Soo line freight train in the local yards. His legs were so badly mangled that it was necessary to amputate them. At St. Mary's hospital where the man is confined it is reported that he will recover.

Jensen, it is said, was endeavoring to board the train as it was pulling out of the city when the accident occurred. Before being taken to the hospital the man begged that he be put out of his misery.

GET IN $5813
FOR RED CROSS

According to C. P. Crosby $2315 was raised in Rhinelander for the Army Y. M. C. A. Deducting $10425 for expenses left a net total of $2211.15.

There has already been paid into the treasury of the Red Cross $5813.25 as the result of the campaign here. Mr. Crosby states that a number of pledges are still out.

CRANBERRY GROWER HERE

Thomas Rezin was the guest of his cousin, John Rezin, at the Witter home, on Anderson street last week. He was accompanied by his niece, Mrs. Hoffman of Pittsburg, Pa. Mr. Rezin is one of the leading cranberry growers of Wisconsin and owns a large cranberry marsh near Grand Rapids. He ships thousands of barrels of the berries to the big markets every season.

NEW SAW MILL READY

The new saw mill of the Fish Lumber Co. in Antigo is ready for operation. It will add to Wisconsin's already great output of high grade lumber thousands of feet annually. The plant is one of the most modern in the state having its own electric lighting plant. As soon as it is full operation a night shift will be put on to increase the output for war competition.

FOX CHASES A FOX

A Mitchell car driven by Bud Lewis, city editor of the News, came near causing the funeral of a red fox near the Gross farm the other day. Bud says that Sir Reynard trotted along ahead of the car for about fifty yards before taking to the brush. Bud is quite a fox himself, but that's no reason why anyone should doubt his story.

CATCHES McNABB
AND GETS $50

The Park Falls police officer, who recaptured Ed. McNabb after his escape from the Oneida county jail, was handed fifty dollars for his trouble. The Park Falls Herald tells of McNabb's capture:

A short time ago the local police received notice that a prisoner named Ed. McNabb had escaped from the Oneida County Jail at Rhinelander and that a reward of $50 was offered for his capture. They were well acquainted with McNabb, he having been a guest at the local jail on various occasions in the past. Naturally our cops were anxious to renew their acquaintance with Mr. McNabb and within a few hours after he struck town last Friday Policeman Ed. Curran had again placed him behind the bars.

A deputy sheriff from Rhinelander arrived here by auto on Saturday afternoon, took charge of the prisoner and paid over to Policeman Curran the easiest fifty he had ever earned.

NUMBER NAMES
FOR THE DRAFT

Oneida County Board Completes This Work Several Days Ago

All registered men in this city and county subject to draft have been supplied with numbers by the conscription board of Oneida county. The board completed this work several days ago and the numbers have been made public.

Unofficially it was indicated on Monday at Washington that 637,000 is the number of men to be selected for the first national war army from the millions registered June 5th. Probably twice that number of names will be drawn as the number of exemptions to be allowed is estimated at fifty per cent.

When the case of any registrant has been disposed of, so far as the local board is concerned, the names of those not exempted or discharged will be posted. Claims for exemption for agricultural or industrial work must be made within five days after such posting and must go direct to the higher board sitting for the judicial district. Appeals from the rulings of local boards must be made to the higher board within ten days.

HE NEVER EVEN SAID GOOD BYE

Where is C. E. Slusser?
This is the question which Rhinelander officers would like to have answered.

Slusser, who for many years has been a taxidermist in this city, was arrested Saturday, in company with Mrs. Caroline Berlin, on a statutory charge. In municipal court he pleaded not guilty and his case was continued until Monday. His bonds were placed at $500 and he seemed to have no difficulty in raising this amount. Mrs. Berlin entered a plea of guilty and she will be sentenced later in circuit court.

When Slusser's case came up Monday he failed to appear in court and upon investigation it was learned that he had suddenly departed from this city without making known his future address.

There is every reason to believe that Mr. Slusser will keep traveling as long as the "going is good" and will not remember his friends here with any souvenir post cards.

WAR RELICS FROM EUROPE

Through the courtesy of the Royal Tailors, E. P. Laugesen is exhibiting in the display windows of his clothing store, corner Davenport and Stevens Sts. a rare and interesting assortment of war relics direct from the fighting fields of Europe.

Articles of wearing apparel of German, French, Belgian and Italian soldiers, small fighting equipment and an exploded French 72 m. m. shell are in the collection.

This is the second display of the kind which the Royal Tailors have had at the Laugesen store within the last six months.

NEWSY NOTES OF NEARBY TOWNS

Clintonville.
A deal has been closed whereby this city is to have a new, modern hotel. K. C. Frey, former proprietor and manager of the Tremont House at Oshkosh, has bought the old Ward House property and is the party who will erect the new building. The new hotel is to be three stories and a basement building and will be modern in every respect. Mr. Frey is an experienced hotel man, familiar with the needs of the traveling public and there is no question but what he will run just such a hotel as the growing needs of this city demands. The work of removing the old building will be commenced soon. The new hotel will cost in the neighborhood of $75,000.

Tomahawk.
Mrs. E. Boehlke was accidentally shot Monday inflicting a serious wound. Mr. Boehlke was cleaning a rifle which was 32 calibre. To take precautions against an accident he carried the rifle out doors and while in the act of cleaning the gun it accidentally discharged striking Mrs. Boehlke in the hip as she stood in the doorway of the house. The bullet entered the right hip in an upward manner going through the hip and out through the left leg terribly mangle the right thigh. The physicians state that the patient is doing nicely and unless blood poison should set in she will recover and probably retain the use of the limb.

Hayward.
Most of the 1100 Indians, all Pagans, on the Court O'Reillys reservation have assembled at Whitefish and Chief Lake for their annual war dance. The Winnebagoes from Black River Falls are the guests of the tribe holding forth at Chief Lake. A number of Indian tribes of the Northwest are represented with their best dancers. Several years ago white visitors to the dances were looked upon with disfavor by the Indians and picture taking was forbidden but of late they do not object, and settlers for miles around and tourists from the nearby lakes and resorts never miss witnessing the festivals. Christian Indians attend, but do not take part in the dancing.

Merrill.
Fred Kelsey, an inmate of the county home for a number of years, was drowned in the Prairie river directly back of the home. Mr. Kelsey was almost totally blind, but was in the habit of going about alone. Oftentimes he would come to town and remain two or three days at a time, then return to the home. He left the home Thursday and it was thought by Superintendent Johnson and others that he was in town. Saturday his hat was seen floating in the river and later his cane was found half way down the bank of the river, which is quite steep at this point. A search in the river revealed his body. The supposition is that Mr. Kelsey was taking a walk about the farm and because of his blindness, accidentally fell down the bank and into the river.

Gladstone.
A plant for the manufacture of motors and dynamos will shortly be erected in Gladstone. A company has been organized and will be operated as a subsidiary of the Marble Arms & Manufacturing company. Included in the membership are the members of the above firm, together with John F. Card of Three Rivers, Mich. It is expected that the plant will be in full operation in from eight months to one year. Ground for the plant will be broken within the next two weeks and work will be rushed to completion. Mr. Card will arrive in the city, July 17 and will superintend the construction. The plant will, when operating to full capacity, give employment to about seventy-five people and will mean a valuable addition to the industrial life of Gladstone.

EAGLE RIVER

Eagle River Review
All salmon licenses expired Saturday night and in observance of the expression of the voters of Eagle River at the April election, no renewals were made this year. At 12:00 o'clock that night all closed their doors. Mart Hirtzel paid off his help, and closed at noon, and then went fishing. Chas. Zimle, Hermann and Dave Schlack closed at six o'clock and at 12:05 Eagle River was dry for the first time in its history. Although too early to make any prediction as to what the people will prefer next year thus far no evil effects are apparent. One of the best arguments for a dry town was demonstrated the fourth when out of several hundreds in town not an intoxicated man was seen all day, a condition that we venture to say never prevailed in town before, and impossible of attainment in any town on any day which brings men together in numbers, exposed to the temptations of sociability and drinks unusually frequent.

The death of John Briggs of Chicago occurred at John Sisson's resort on Little St. Germain shortly before noon today following a few hours illness with heart failure. Mr. Briggs and his brother Chas. who were engaged in the real estate business in Chicago and regular guests at Sisson's for several years. They were well known here and from the fact of being twins and hard to distinguish from each other were objects of interest in spite of being 54 years of age. The remains accompanied by the brother will leave for Chicago tonight.

Fr. Gerlitzki, a newly ordained priest arrived the first of the week to act as assistant to Fr. Toplak of St. Peter's church. The many friends of the latter are pleased to know that his congregation are thus making an effort to lighten his labors after many years of faithful service.

When that "How Dry I Am" feeling gets too oppressive the sufferer can get relief by driving out to a life saving station which opened July 1, three miles from town on the Rhinelander road and in Oneida county. Robt. Felt, John Benson and Pete Stein are the owners with the latter actively in charge.

MINOCQUA

(Minocqua Times)
The annual school meeting for the local school district was held last Monday evening. The usual business was transacted and the following were elected as officers: Clerk, L. G. Fredericks; Treasurer, S. Christopherson; Director, C. F. Leland. The first two received all of the votes cast for their respective offices. For director, C. F. Leland received 132 and Ed. Yenor 33 votes. Mr. Yenor was not a candidate for the office. The total vote was 165, 71 of which were cast by women.

The annual appropriations and business were carried on before the voting. Seven thousand dollars were appropriated for the regular school fund, $100 for repairs on the several school buildings in the district and $720 for transportation making a total levy of $8270. It was voted unanimously to build the school house in the Shishobogama district at once. Two thousand dollars were appropriated for this last year.

The Theo. Bosacki family of Eagle River motored to Minocqua yesterday for a short visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Henry Slocum and little son are visiting at the Small home. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Fisher of Battle Creek are visiting at the W. H. Fisher home.

When Chas. Barnum, clerk of the high school board, went to the belfry of the local school house to put a new and bright Old Glory in place of the remnants of the flag which have been hanging from the school flag pole he found those remnants in a most deplorable condition. Whether prompted by actual enmity toward our country, or whether prompted by low down spite neither elevates nor further degrades what he found. The flag was knotted and braided and tied in a most deplorable and disgraceful manner. We have read of men being made to kiss the flag and in other ways render at least a reparation in part for blaspheming that flag, but in this case this would be too good for them. What in your mind would be sufficient punishment for the man who would thus mutilate the flag which should float over that institution where your sons and daughters are receiving the instruction which should tend to make them better citizens and better patriots?

TAKE OFF MAIL CAR

The war is evidently coming home to the people who live on the branch of the Chicago & Northwestern line between here and Oconto. Monday the mail train on that run was taken off and the only way some of the towns have of getting mail in on through pouches, transferred from one station to another. For the past thirty years a mail car has been attached to all regular passenger runs and to take it off now is going to work a hardship to all towns along the line of this branch.—Clintonville Tribune.

Soldiers' Babies

Our present state of war does not warrant any relaxation of interest in the subject of infant welfare this year. On the contrary, we owe it to the fathers who, as volunteers and conscripts, must be away from home to do our part in saving their babies' lives. Those brave fellows are doing enough in risking their own lives for the safety and happiness of the nation.

It may seem that there is not a very close connection between a father's fighting in Europe and his baby's living here, but there is. A reduced family income affects the baby seriously, especially in a high cost-of-living market. I may mention the substitution of a cheap, low grade of milk for pure milk. In one instance, I know of, this killed a baby last summer when our men were only so far away as the Mexican border.

The efficiency of fighting men, furthermore, is affected by whether their minds are harassed or at peace concerning the health and welfare of their families back home. This fact has been emphasized by Captain Cathro, U. S. Army, who speaks not on theory but on the authority of a veteran soldier. Doubtless, there would have been a far larger number of volunteers had not many an otherwise-willing soldier been deterred from enlisting by the question of the health and help of his wife and children.

Another reason more remote but no less patriotic, was voiced by John Burns when he said: "Give me intelligent motherhood and good prenatal conditions, and I have no doubt of the future of this or any other nation. Patriotism, humanity, love for babes and a sense of fair play, all combine to compel us not to lose sight of the lives and welfare of our babies at home while we are driving with every ounce of our power for the babies and people of Belgium and France."

FOR PREVENTION OF DISEASE

I. Honor thy city and keep its sanitary laws.

II. Remember thy cleaning day, and keep it wholly.

III. Thou shalt love thy children and provide for them decent homes and playgrounds.

IV. Thou shalt keep fresh air in thy house day and night.

V. Thou shalt keep clean and in order, thy alleys, thy back yard, thy halls and stairways.

VI. Thou shalt not kill thine own, nor thy neighbors' bodies, with poisonous air and disease breeding filth.

VII. Thou shalt not let the filthy fly live.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal thy children's happiness from them by neglecting their health.

IX. Thou shalt not bear filthy, decayed teeth in thy mouth nor tolerate them in the mouths of those about thee.

X. Thou shalt not spit on the sidewalks, nor on the floor, nor in the street car, nor in any public place whatsoever.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the many kind relatives and friends for their aid and sympathy during the illness and at the death of our beloved son, Henry. We also feel grateful for the beautiful floral offerings and especially do we thank Rev. W. Kalandy.

TO ATTEND CITY LEAGUE MEETING

Mayor Grant V. Clark and other city officials will attend the nineteenth annual convention of the League of Wisconsin Municipalities to be held in Racine, August 15, 16 and 17. Forty cities have joined the league since the meeting held in Oshkosh last year, and now all cities in the state with a population of 5000 or more are members. More than 225 delegates, including 50 mayors, attended the meeting last year, and between 300 and 400 are expected this year for 113 cities will send delegates. Many new problems brought by the war, such as registration for the draft, municipal employment bureaus, and city markets, will be emphasized this year. The league was organized in 1898 and has for its object the study of problems common to city governments, the dissemination of information relative to local government, and the promotion of legislation beneficial to municipalities. Mayor C. B. Clark, Neenah, is president, Mayor H. W. Adams, Beloit, is vice-president, and Prof. F. H. McGregor, head of the municipal reference bureau of the University Extension division, is secretary-treasurer.

JULY 4 PICNIC AT PINE LAKE

July 4th in Pine Lake was enjoyed by about 150 people on the picnic grounds near the town hall. Judge Smith delivered a fine address calling on the people to respond during the present crisis of our nation with the same spirit which roused the men of '76. Uncle Sam in full uniform was right on the job all day. The various races and contests kept nearly everyone entertained until late afternoon. A few are mentioned below. The first and second prizes for the boys race were won by Lloyd and Felix Baud hui. In the girls race Signey Eide won first and Claribel Bailey second. Harvey Nowland won first in the sack race. James Whalen captured the basket of lunch in the old men's race. Robert Wilson won the young men's race. The married ladies' nail driving contest was won by Mrs. F. C. Ulrich.

ORDERED OUT OF CITY

Matt Gilbertson and Ted Barabau, two old offenders were ordered to leave town Saturday by Judge C. F. Smith when they were arraigned on a drunken and disorderly charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Goldstone and daughter and Mrs. A. D. Marks and son spent Sunday with McNaughton friends.

If not called for within 30 days, the guitar, which was left at the Rhinelander Novelty Works, will be sold for repairs. Jul 12

Misses Lillian Johnson and Agnes Westerguard returned to Owen Friday after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Hopkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderle and children returned Saturday from New Lisbon. While there they attended an old settlers' reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Dietrich and daughter, Miss Mabel, have returned from Phillips where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Dyke.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Kizer of Westboro, accompanied by Mrs. August Struve of Ogema motored to this city and spent Sunday at the home of Thomas Wright. On their return home they were accompanied by Elaine Wight.

Miss Doll Stapleton and Miss Margaret Gary can give old like Walton himself a few pointers when it comes to fishing. Tuesday forenoon they proudly exhibited to admiring friends their "catch" taken from Lake George. Said "catch" consisted of a half dozen splendid perch each about the size of an ordinary sardine.

Mrs. Della Fitzgerald was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank ant in Hazelhurst this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Reynolds, who were guests at the Danfield home, returned to Merrill Saturday.

Mrs. Fay Marshall and children are guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Manson in Wausau.

Mrs. T. Slattery and children, who were guests of relatives here, returned to Ladysmith Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leary and son Keith are spending a few days at Swail's resort at Moon's Lake.

E. C. Sturdevant and family have gone to their summer home in Sugar Camp to spend the season.

Mrs. O. Hoffman, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Whitlier, left for Cleveland Saturday.

Lloyd Dolan is here from Detroit visiting his aunt, Miss Anna Dolan, and uncle, Michael Dolan.

Mrs. A. Anderle and Mrs. F. L. Hinman attended the home-coming festivities in New Lisbon last week.

Mrs. J. F. Jeske and children are visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. Roepcke and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Mangerson.

LANDRITH GREAT ORATOR COMING

Ira Landrith, a southern orator of international reputation, is on the Lincoln Chautauqua program for two lectures, and a double treat is in store for the ticket holders. Mr. Landrith is a giant—both physically and mentally. He towers in stature above men in any crowd, and his mental stature is entirely in keeping with his size. He will doubtless be given a cordial reception on his arrival here, because he is one of the great men of the country, and a leader of men with an enviable record of accomplishments behind him. As one of the vice presidential candidates in 1916, he toured the country on a special train, making a dozen or more speeches every day for weeks, and the newspaper men declare that he never made the same speech twice.

His addresses here will reveal his renown as a platform orator who has the happy faculty of combining eloquence and wit and logic. One of his lectures will be "Level Best Living". It is an address that sways the audience—sometimes with laughter—sometimes to tears, but leaving with them real inspiration.

In addition to his many other accomplishments, Mr. Landrith has the reputation of being the undisputed champion teller of irresistibly funny southern negro stories, and those who hear him at the Chautauqua tent may go with the expectation of enjoying his phase of his lectures.

WISCONSIN 30TH STAR

Do you know your own star on the United States flag? All people know there are thirteen stripes, representing the thirteen original states and forty-eight stars, representing all the states which go to make up the Union, but few people know which particular star of the flag represents their own state. It is true that each star has its own individual and particular state which it represents and its placement on the square of blue is carefully and definitely regulated by law and executive order. The stars are arranged in six horizontal rows of eight stars each. Starting in the upper left hand corner and placing each star from left to right the star corresponding to each state is named in the order of the state's ratification of the constitution. Thus star No. 1, in the upper left hand corner, is for Delaware. Star No. 48, in the lower right hand corner, is for Arizona. The thirtieth star represents the state of Wisconsin.

REGISTER WOMEN NEXT

Registration of women all over the country is soon to be made by the Council of National Defense. The woman registered will give her age, color, occupation, references, desire to work, time pledged for service, citizenship, education, and persons dependent upon her, and her training, whether in agricultural, clerical, domestic, industrial, professional, relief, social-service work, or whether she has any knowledge or skill of possible value to the government. The registration will also show whether she has any physical defects and the condition of her eyes, ears and voice.

"When we have finished this registration," said Mrs. Joseph H. Lamar of Georgia, member of the woman's committee of the Council of National Defense, "we will know definitely what each woman in the country will be best able to do to help with the national defense."

NO LOOKING BACK IN RHINELANDER

New Evidence Constantly Being Published

Since the long succession of Rhinelander reports were first published in the local press there has been no looking back. Rhinelander evidence continues to pour in, and—better still—those whose reports were first published many years ago, verify all they said in a most hearty and unmistakable way. Read the experience of Mr. J. E. Russ, 821 Wabash St., Rhinelander, says: "Hoisting logs brought a strain on my back that resulted in backache and pains through my loins. When I lay down and in the morning when I got up, my back was the most painful. My kidneys didn't act right and I had every reason to know that they were causing the suffering. Three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills cured the attack."

OVER THREE YEARS LATER Mr. Russ said: "I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills at every opportunity. I have used this medicine since first recommending it, with the same good results."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Russ has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

FORECLOSURE SALE

Notice is hereby given, that by virtue of a judgment of foreclosure and sale, duly made and entered in the circuit court for Oneida county on the 19th day of June, 1916, in an action in said court in which J. Emmerling is plaintiff and Jacob Turban, Charles M. Wirth and John Dewald are defendants, I shall expose for sale and sell at public auction, at the front door of the court house in the city of Rhinelander, in said county of Oneida, on the 11th day of August, 1917, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, all of the land and premises described in said judgment to-wit:

The southwest quarter of the northwest quarter of section twenty-five (25) in township thirty-six (36) north, of range eight (8) east, in Oneida county, aforesaid; for the purpose of paying said judgment and costs of sale.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. It is not a case of deafness caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Halls Catarrh Cure. Send for circular, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists. Take Halls Family Pills for constipation.

NEWSY NOTES OF NEARBY TOWNS

Clintonville.
A deal has been closed whereby this city is to have a new, modern hotel. K. C. Frey, former proprietor and manager of the Tremont House at Oshkosh, has bought the old Ward House property and is the party who will erect the new building. The new hotel is to be three story and a basement building and will be modern in every respect. Mr. Frey is an experienced hotel man, familiar with the needs of the traveling public and there is no question but what he will run just such a hotel as the growing needs of this city demands. The work of removing the old building will be commenced soon. The new hotel will cost in the neighborhood of $75,000.

Tomahawk.
Mrs. E. Boehlke was accidentally shot Monday inflicting a serious wound. Mr. Boehlke was cleaning a rifle which was 32 calibre. To take precautions against an accident he carried the rifle out doors and while in the act of cleaning the gun it accidentally discharged striking Mrs. Boehlke in the hip as she stood in the doorway of the house. The bullet entered the right hip in an upward manner going through the hip and out through the left leg terribly mangling the right thigh. The physicians state that the patient is doing nicely and unless blood poison should set in she will recover and probably retain the use of the limb.

Hayward.
Most of the 1100 Indians, all Pagans, on the Court O'Reillys reservation have assembled at Whitefish and Chief lakes for their annual war dance. The Winnebagoes from Black River Falls are the guests of the tribe holding forth at Chief lake. A number of Indian tribes of the Northwest are represented with their best dancers. Several years ago white visitors to the dances were looked upon with disfavor by the Indians and picture taking was forbidden but of late they do not object, and settlers from miles around and tourists from the nearby lakes and resorts never miss witnessing the festivals. Christian Indians attend, but do not take part in the dancing.

Merrill.
Fred Kelsey, an inmate of the county home for a number of years, was drowned in the Prairie river directly back of the home. Mr. Kelsey was almost totally blind, but was in the habit of going about alone. Oftentimes he would come to town and remain two or three days at a time, then return to the home. He left the home Thursday and it was thought by Superintendent Johnson and others that he was in town. Saturday his hat was seen floating in the river and later his cane was found half way down the bank of the river, which is quite steep at this point. A search in the river revealed his body. The supposition is that Mr. Kelsey was taking a walk about the farm and because of his blindness, accidentally fell down the bank and into the river.

Gladstone.
A plant for the manufacture of motors and dynamos will shortly be erected in Gladstone. A company has been organized and will be operated as a subsidiary of the Marble Arms & Manufacturing company. Included in the membership are the members of the above firm, together with John F. Card of Three Rivers, Mich. It is expected that the plant will be in full operation in from eight months to one year. Ground for the plant will be broken within the next two weeks and work will be rushed to completion. Mr. Card will arrive in the city, July 17 and will superintend the construction. The plant will, when operating to full capacity, give employment to about seventy-five people and will mean a valuable addition to the industrial life of Gladstone.

EAGLE RIVER

(Eagle River Review)

All saloon licenses expired Saturday night and in observance of the expression of the voters of Eagle River at the April election, no renewals were made this year. At 12:00 o'clock that night all closed their doors. Mart Hirtel paid off his help, and closed at noon, and then went fishing. Chas. Zimle-mann and Dave Schlack closed at six o'clock and at 12:45 Eagle River was dry for the first time in its history. Although too early to make any prediction as to what the people will prefer next year thus far no evil effects are apparent. One of the best arguments for a dry town was demonstrated the fourth when out of several hundreds in town not an intoxicated man was seen all day, a condition that we venture to say never prevailed in town before, and impossible of attainment in any town on any day which brings men together in numbers, exposed to the temptations of sociability and drinks unusually frequent.

The death of John Briggs of Chicago occurred at John Sisson's resort on Little St. Germain shortly before noon today following a few hours illness with heart failure. Mr. Briggs and his brother Chas. who were engaged in the real estate business in Chicago and regular guests at Sissons' for several years. They were well known here and from the fact of being twins and hard to distinguish from each other were objects of interest in spite of being 34 years of age. The remains accompanied by the brother will leave for Chicago tonight.

Fr. Gerlitzki, a newly ordained priest arrived the first of the week to act as assistant to Fr. Toplac of St. Peter's church. The many friends of the latter are pleased to know that his congregation are thus making an effort to lighten his labors after many years of faithful service.

When that "How Dry I Am" feeling gets too oppressive the sufferer can get relief by driving out to a life saving station which opened July 1, three miles from town on the Rhinelander road and in Oneida county. Robt. Felt, John Benson and Pete Stein are the owners with the latter actively in charge.

MINOCQUA

(Minocqua Times)

The annual school meeting for the local school district was held last Monday evening. The usual business was transacted and the following were elected as officers: Clerk, L. G. Fredericks; Treasurer, S. Christopherson; Director, C. F. Leland. The first two received all of the votes cast for their respective offices. For director, C. F. Leland received 132 and Ed. Yenor 35 votes. Mr. Yenor was not a candidate for the office. The total vote was 167, 71 of which were cast by women.

The annual appropriations and business were carried on before the voting. Seven thousand dollars were appropriated for the regular school fund, $100 for repairs on the several school buildings in the district and $720 for transportation making a total levy of $8270. It was voted unanimously to build the school house in the Shishobogama district at once. Two thousand dollars were appropriated for this last year.

The Theo Bosacki family of Eagle River motored to Minocqua yesterday for a short visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Henry Slum and little son are visiting at the Small home. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Fisher of Battle Creek are visiting at the W. H. Fisher home.

When Chas. Barnum, clerk of the high school board, went to the belfry of the local school house to put a new and bright Old Glory in place of the remnants of the flag which have been hanging from the school flag pole he found those remnants in a most deplorable condition. Whether prompted by actual enmity toward our country, or whether prompted by low down spite neither elevates nor further degrades what he found. The flag was knotted and branded and tied in a most deplorable and disgracing manner. We have read of men being made to kiss the flag and in other ways render at least a reparation in part for blaspheming that flag, but in this case this would be too good for them. What in your mind would be sufficient punishment for the man who would thus mutilate the flag which should float over that institution where your sons and daughters are receiving the instruction which should tend to make them better citizens and better patriots?

TAKE OFF MAIL CAR

The war is evidently coming home to the people who live on the branch of the Chicago & Northwestern line between here and Oconto. Monday the mail train on that run was taken off and the only way some of the towns have of getting mail in on through pouches, transferred from one station to another. For the past thirty years a mail car has been attached to all regular passenger runs and to take it off now is going to work a hardship to all towns along the line of this branch.---Clintonville Tribune.

Our present state of war does not warrant any relaxation of interest in the subject of infant welfare this year. On the contrary, we owe it to the fathers who, as volunteers and conscripts, must be away from home to do our part in saving their babies' lives. Those brave fellows are doing enough in risking their own lives for the safety and happiness of the nation.

It may seem that there is not a very close connection between a father's fighting in Europe and his baby's living here, but there is. A reduced family income affects the baby seriously, especially in a high cost-of-living market. It may mean the substitution of a cheap, low grade of milk for pure milk. In one instance, I know of, this killed a baby last summer when our men were only so far away as the Mexican border.

The efficiency of fighting men, furthermore, is affected by whether their minds are harassed or at peace concerning the health and welfare of their families back home. This fact has been emphasized by Captain Cathro, U. S. Army, who speaks not on theory but on the authority of a veteran soldier. Doubtless, there would have been a far larger number of volunteers had not many an otherwise-willing soldier been deterred from enlisting by the question of the health and help of his wife and children.

Another reason more remote but no less patriotic, was voiced by John Burns when he said: "Give me intelligent motherhood and good prenatal conditions, and I have no doubt of the future of this or any other nation. Patriotism, humanity, love for babes and a sense of fair play, all combine to compel us not to lose sight of the lives and welfare of our babies at home while we are driving with every ounce of our power for the babies and people of Belgium and France."

FOR PREVENTION OF DISEASE

I. Honor thy city and keep its sanitary laws.
II. Remember thy cleaning day, and keep it wholly.
III. Thou shalt love thy children and provide for them decent homes and playgrounds.
IV. Thou shalt keep fresh air in thy house day and night.
V. Thou shalt keep clean and in order, thy alleys, thy back yard, thy halls and stairways.
VI. Thou shalt not kill thine own, nor thy neighbors' bodies, with poisonous air and disease breeding filth.
VII. Thou shalt not let the filthy fly live.
VIII. Thou shalt not steal thy children's happiness from them by neglecting their health.
IX. Thou shalt not bear filthy, decayed teeth in thy mouth nor tolerate them in the mouths of those about thee.
X. Thou shalt not spit on the sidewalks, nor on the floor, nor in the street car, nor in any public place whatsoever.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the many kind relatives and friends for their aid and sympathy during the illness and at the death of our beloved son, Henry. We also feel grateful for the beautiful floral offerings and especially do we thank Rev. W. Kalandyck.

TO ATTEND CITY LEAGUE MEETING

Mayor Grant V. Clark and other city officials will attend the nineteenth annual convention of the League of Wisconsin Municipalities to be held in Racine, August 13, 16 and 17.

Forty cities have joined the league since the meeting held in Oshkosh last year, and now all cities in the state with a population of 5000 or more are members.

More than 225 delegates, including 50 mayors, attended the meeting last year, and between 300 and 400 are expected this year for 113 cities will send delegates. Many new problems brought by the war, such as registration for the draft, municipal employment bureaus, and city markets, will be emphasized this year.

The league was organized in 1898 and has for its object the study of problems common to city governments, the dissemination of information relative to local government, and the promotion of legislation beneficial to municipalities.

Mayor C. B. Clark, Neenah, is president, Mayor H. W. Adams, Beloit, is vice-president, and Prof. F. H. McGregor, head of the municipal reference bureau of the University Extension division, is secretary-treasurer.

JULY 4 PICNIC AT PINE LAKE

July 4th in Pine Lake was enjoyed by about 150 people on the picnic grounds near the town hall. Judge Smith delivered a fine address calling on the people to respond during the present crisis of our nation with the same spirit which roused the men of '76. Uncle Sam in full uniform was right on the job all day. The various races and contests kept nearly everyone entertained until late afternoon. A few are mentioned below. The first and second prizes for the boys race were won by Lloyd and Felix Bauduin. In the girls race Signey Eide won first and Claribel Bailey second. Harvey Nowland won first in the sack race. James Whalen captured the basket of lunch in the old men's race. Robert Wilson won the young men's race. The married ladies' nail driving contest was won by Mrs. F. C. Ulrich.

ORDERED OUT OF CITY
Matt Gilbertson and Ted Barabeau, two old offenders were ordered to leave town Saturday by Judge C. F. Smith when they were arraigned on a drunken and disorderly charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Goldstone and daughter and Mrs. A. D. Marks and son spent Sunday with McNaughton friends.

If not called for within 30 days, the guitar, which was left at the Rhinelander Novelty Works, will be sold for repairs.

Misses Lillian Johnson and Agnes Westerguard returned to Owen Friday after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Hopkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderle and children returned Saturday from New Lisbon. While there they attended an old settlers' reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Dietrich and daughter, Miss Mabel, have returned from Phillips where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Dyke.

LANDRITH GREAT ORATOR COMING

Ira Landrith, a southern orator of international reputation, is on the Lincoln Chautauqua program for two lectures, and a double treat is in store for the ticket holders. Mr. Landrith is a giant—both physically and mentally. He towers in stature above most men in any crowd, and his mental stature is entirely in keeping with his size. He will doubtless be given a cordial reception on his arrival here, because he is one of the great men of the country, and a leader of men with an enviable record of accomplishments behind him. As one of the vice presidential candidates in 1916, he toured the country on a special train, making a dozen or more speeches every day for weeks, and the newspaper men declare that he never made the same speech twice.

His addresses here will reveal his renown as a platform orator who has the happy faculty of combining eloquence and wit and logic. One of his lectures will be "Level Best Living". It is an address that sways the audience—sometimes with laughter—sometimes to tears, but leaving with them real inspiration.

In addition to his many other accomplishments, Mr. Landrith has the reputation of being the undisputed champion teller of irresistibly funny southern negro stories, and those who hear him at the Chautauqua tent may go with the expectation of enjoying his phase of his lectures.

WISCONSIN 30TH STAR

Do you know your own star on the United States flag? All people know there are thirteen stripes, representing the thirteen original states and forty-eight stars, representing all the states which go to make up the Union, but few people know which particular star of the flag represents their own state. It is true that each star has its own individual and particular state which it represents and its placement on the square of blue is carefully and definitely regulated by law and executive order. The stars are arranged in six horizontal rows of eight stars each. Starting in the upper left hand corner and placing each star from left to right the star corresponding to each state is named in the order of the state's ratification of the constitution. Thus star No. 1, in the upper left hand corner, is for Delaware. Star No. 48, in the lower right hand corner, is for Arizona. The thirtieth star represents the state of Wisconsin.

REGISTER WOMEN NEXT

Registration of women all over the country is soon to be made by the Council of National Defense. The woman registered will give her age, color, occupation, references, desire to work, time pledged for service, citizenship, education, persons dependent upon her, and her training, whether in agricultural, clerical, domestic, industrial, professional, relief, social-service work, or whether she has any knowledge or skill of possible value to the government. The registration will also show whether she has any physical defects and the condition of her eyes, ears and voice.

"When we have finished this registration," said Mrs. Joseph R. Lamar of Georgia, member of the woman's committee of the Council of National Defense, "we will know definitely what each woman in the country will be best able to do to help with the national defense."

NO LOOKING BACK

IN RHINELANDER New Evidence Constantly Being Published

Since the long succession of Rhinelander reports were first published in the local press there has been no looking back. Rhinelander evidence continues to pour in, and—better still—those whose reports were first published many years ago, verify all they said in a most hearty and unmistakable way. Read the experience of Mr. J. E. Russ, 821 Wabash St., Rhinelander, says: "Hoisting logs brought a strain on my back that resulted in backache and pains through my loins. When I lay down and in the morning when I got up, my back was the most painful. My kidneys didn't act right and I had every reason to know that they were causing the suffering. Three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills cured the attack."

OVER THREE YEARS LATER
Mr. Russ said: "I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills at every opportunity. I have used this medicine since first recommending it, with the same good results."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Russ has twice publicly recommended. Foster-McLiburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; and this cannot be cured by local applications, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

THE FARMER KICKED

A merchant in a western town showed a farmer a buggy priced at $90, and the farmer kicked because twenty years ago his father bought one just like it for $60.

Then the merchant looked up his sale and found that the father had turned in 300 bushels of corn for that buggy, and he told the farmer's son to deliver him 300 bushels of corn and he would give him:

- One $90 buggy
- One $75 wagon
- One $20 suit of clothes
- One $20 dress
- One $5 baby dress
- One $5 crib
- One $3 box of cigars
- $10 worth of sugar
- $10 worth of tea
- $100 worth of gasoline
- $15 worth of lubricating oil.

The total figures $365, as the value of 300 bushels of corn, and it is needless to say the high cost of living disappeared from the farmer's mind and he bought the buggy—Chicago News.

VAN HISE ON TRUSTS

In Portland, Oregon, Monday, President Charles Van Hise of the University of Wisconsin declared that the nation must adopt new methods of controlling trusts.

Dr. Van Hise, who addressed the Portland board of commerce and delivered an official message to the Pacific coast business men, said that the Sherman law had proved a failure in its application in many cases.

He cited what he characterized as excessive profits and declared that swollen fortunes must be made to pay their just share of the expense of the war.

"This, it seems to me," he said, "is the only way in which Socialism can be escaped. It is the man who is making unfair profits out of the necessities of the people who is promoting Socialism today."

"There has been a steady advance of prices for the last twelve years but the advance in the last fifteen months has been at a rapidly accelerated rate. Prices within this period have gone up 100 per cent 200 per cent, in some cases as much as 400 per cent."

These increases have imposed great hardships upon all dependent upon a daily wage or a small salary. It is true that salaries and wages have advanced a little during the same period, perhaps 10 percent or 15 percent on the average, but in comparison the cost of the consumer is one which requires national consideration."

President Van Hise says undue war profits must pay its share of the expense of the war.

Senator LaFollette presented a bill to the U. S. Senate committee last week along this line of assessing undue incomes to pay the war but it was immediately voted down.

These big interests have plenty of representatives in Washington to look out for their interests and see the burden is thrown on the masses.

LADIES SEWING FOR RED CROSS

An enthusiastic group of ladies spent all day yesterday working at the Red Cross Headquarters in the Hinman building on Davenport street. Under the skillful guidance of Miss Wilcox the ladies are learning very rapidly to make the dressings and do the sewing for the hospitals in just the manner that the authorities wish to have it done.

The last three days in each week will be devoted to sewing and the first three to making surgical dressings. The room will be open all day and ladies who can work either forenoon or afternoon or both are most cordially welcome.

ALIENS CAN'T HUNT

LONG ILLNESS ENDS IN DEATH

After a long illness death came to end the suffering of Mrs. Charles Gaehler Sunday afternoon. Since the birth of a child several months ago Mrs. Gaehler had been in a critical condition. Everything within the power of medical skill and loving hands was done to aid her, but to no avail. The silent messenger could not be stayed.

Mrs. Gaehler was twenty-three years of age and during the few years which she lived in Rhinelander made many friends. Her kind and amiable disposition endeared her to all. Throughout her illness she endeavored to bear up bravely and at times her fortitude was remarkable.

To the grief stricken husband and other relatives who are left to mourn deepest sympathy is extended.

The funeral of Mrs. Gaehler was held from the home 919 Dorr Ave Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Gertz of North Grandon was the officiating clergyman.

Sensible Rejoinder.

"Don't you think," asked the young man with the long nose, "that Miss Quickstep dresses as much like a man as possible in order to get herself talked about?" "On the supposition that she does," replied the other young man, with a frosty glitter in his eye, "I suggest that we defeat her purpose by not talking about her. Understand?"

What's More, It Has Two of Them.

Little Eva lived in Brooklyn. When her father told her he would take her on a trip up the river she was delighted. She had heard so much about the beautiful Hudson. As they were nearing New York on their return he asked her what she thought of it. She replied, "Why, papa, I think the river is just like any other river, but the sides are pretty."—Christian Herald.

Daily Thought.

Good sense must in many cases determine good breeding; because the same thing that would be civil at one time, and to one person, may be quite otherwise at another time and to another person, but there are some general rules of good breeding that hold always true and in all cases.—Chesterfield.

Homer's Soldiers.

The Greek killed troops, the Euzones, bear a variant of a name which was given to troops in the days of ancient Greece. Euzonoi, meaning well-girdled and so girted for exercise as killed men are, were light troops or even the heavily-armed hoplites, but without their weighty shields. At first however, the term, as in Homer, was used only regarding women, the "zone" being the lower girdle worn by them about the waist, but by an easy and natural transition this came to mean a man's belt. Then, as the belt supported the short skirts, killed men were called well-belted.

Looking It Up.

He was of that type of genteel beggar that "puts up a front" as the fellows say. His face had more tears in it than a cemetery, and he was just getting ready to tell his down-and-outers tale when the man at the desk reached into a drawer and brought forth a dictionary, placing it in front of the appealing one. "What do you want—sympathy?"—the man at the desk asked. "Yes, sympathy," was the half-sobbed reply. "Look in S for it. I saw it there the other day." The sympathy chaser grunted and headed for the door. He wasn't looking for work, just sympathy—in the form of a piece of loose change.

Why England Is Called John Bull.

Every country has a nickname, and is represented in pictures by an animal. The British lion is the animal which stands for England, and John Bull is its owner and master. The lion is the country; John Bull is the nation. The name John Bull comes from a work written by John Arbuthnot, a witty doctor and writer, a great friend of Swift and Pope. He was born in Scotland in 1667 and died in 1735. The sketch that he wrote dealt with the political affairs of Europe at the time and the countries were made to appear as if they were men and women.

Permitted Rallies.

The rallies which is consistent with good breeding is a gentle admonition on some folly, which, while it raises the laugh in the rest of the company, doth not put the person rallied out of countenance, or expose him to shame or contempt. On the contrary, the jest should be so delicate that the object of it should be capable of joining in the mirth it occasions.—Fielding.

Sneer at Matrimony.

Many a husband thinks if he should die his wife would never get another like him. And many a wife hopes so.—Exchange.

LIVED TO HELP FELLOW MEN

Ruskin's Noble Words Show How the Appeal of Humanity Stirred Him to Self-Sacrifice.

John Ruskin began his life as an art critic; as one who could see what was truest and most full of the beauty that helps the soul; he counted it his mission, his gift, to open the dull eyes of his countrymen to see the glory of the vision that had dazzled his own. He flung the treasures of his mind before men in three great books—"Modern Painters," "The Stones of Venice," and "The Lamps of Architecture." But meantime there had been entering into his mind some knowledge of the deadness of the human soul, of the misery of human lives, of the degradation and brutality rampant everywhere in modern society. He could not go on talking beautifully about pictures when men were starving. Hence he felt the necessity of leaving his gift before the altar, or, at any rate, of harnessing it to other uses. He says: "For my own part I feel the force of mechanism and the fury of avaricious commerce to be at present so irresistible that I have seceded from the study not only of architecture but nearly of all art; and have given myself, as I would in a besieged city, to seek the best modes of getting bread and butter for its multitudes."

Again he says: "I cannot paint, nor read, nor look at minerals, nor do anything else that I like, and the very light of the morning sun has become hateful to me, because of the misery that I know of, and see signs of, where I know it not, which no imagination can interpret too bitterly. Therefore I will endure it no longer quietly, but henceforward, with any few or many who will help, do my poor best to abate this misery."

WELL EQUIPPED WITH BRAINS

Nature Was by No Means Niggardly When She Handed Feathered Creatures Their Portion.

Naturalists have arrived at the conclusion that the brain in birds is large in proportion to the body. If it is admitted that intelligence depends upon the weight of brain, then the goldfinch must be placed at the top of the list of birds; the brain weighs one-fourteenth of its whole body. It must be remarked, however, that attempts to draw conclusions as to the intelligence of certain birds from a comparison of the weight of the brain with that of the body have been considered futile. In man the brain forms from one-twenty-second to one-thirty-third of the whole body; in the canary, one-fourteenth; the sparrow, one-twenty-fifth; the chaffinch, one-twenty-seventh; the redbreast, one-thirty-second; the blackbird, one-sixty-eighth; the duck, one-two-hundred-and-fifty-seventh; the eagle, one-two-hundred-and-sixtieth; the goose, one-three-hundred-and-sixtieth; the domestic hen, one-four-hundred-and-twelfth. By some the preternaturally cunning raven is supposed to be the most highly developed of birds. His courage is so great that the eagle respects it, and his intelligence prevents him from getting into unseen though suspected dangers.

Make a List.

Do you lie awake of nights thinking of what you are going to do tomorrow, or of what you have forgot today? Lots of women do, and it is sheer waste of nervous energy. Don't bother your head worrying about the little details that arise in the course of your day's work. Try the method of making a list. Keep a pad handy, whether it is on your desk, in your sewing basket or on the kitchen wall. Each time a new task arises which you cannot attend to immediately write it on the pad. Then in the course of the day consult your pad, selecting the most important thing to be done, the thing that won't wait until tomorrow. This saves lots of worry. It saves also such complaints as "Mother, you never sewed that button on my coat," or "Mary, did you pay that coal bill that I asked you to attend to?" or "I thought you said you were going to have waffles for supper tonight, mother." There is no use in cluttering the memory with such details when a pencil and paper will do the work.

Reciprocity.

"Whenever I hear anyone speak birthday presents I am reminded of an incident that occurred in my immediate family," said Manager Douglas of the Jefferson. "Some months ago my daughter's husband bought an automobile principally for her use, and she thoroughly enjoyed it. His birthday came around shortly after and his wife told him she had not forgotten him, and said: 'I have a surprise for you. I have bought you a most gorgeous automobile laprobe.' He looked at the article a few seconds, then said, 'This is a surprise, and when your birthday comes around I am going to surprise you.' And he did. He bought her an automobile tire."—Birmingham (Ala.)

DADDY'S EVENING FAIRY TALE BY MARY GRAHAM BONNER

THE SNOW MAN.

"The Brownies thought it would be a fine scheme to make a Snow man," said Daddy.

"He will be the biggest and most beautiful Snow man ever made," said Billie Brownie.

"I don't suppose you'd like a little help," suggested Peter Gnome.

"Is that a hint?" asked Billie Brownie laughing.

"I must admit it is," said Peter Gnome.

"Well, as long as you admit it—I suppose it's all right," Billie Brownie said this, putting his head on one side as if it had been a matter to which he had given a great deal of thought.

"Of course Peter Gnome knew Billie was joking and having some fun."

"Well, when is this event to happen?" asked Peter Gnome. "I am ready any time."

"That's very good of you, Peter," said Billie, "and how about having it this afternoon?"

"Fine!" said Peter Gnome. "All the Gnomes were saying that we hadn't anything to do today. It will be such fun!"

"When afternoon came the Gnomes and Brownies were all ready to make the Snow man."

"There are so many of us," said Billie Brownie, "we ought to be able to make a pretty good sized one."

"That's so," agreed Peter Gnome.

"So they piled up snow and they

Gnomes and Brownies danced around, then cleared a space for the man to stand upon. They all had brought their shovels along and they worked very hard.

"At last it was time to start with the Snow man. Billie Brownie made his feet first of all, and so they made him up until his head was all ready."

"Then, of course, he had to have a hat, and Peter Gnome made him a very handsome high one."

"We have forgotten something," said Billie Brownie.

"What?" they all asked.

"A pipe for his mouth," said Billie.

"To be sure," said Peter Gnome. "A Snow man isn't a real Snow man without a pipe. We'll make it right away."

"So they got some twigs off the tree and some wood, and with their little pen knives they all made pipes. The very best pipe of all was chosen for the Snow man. While the other pipes they put around on the ground beside him."

"For," said Peter Gnome, "he ought to have a little collection of pipes. Different ones for different times."

"And indeed he was the tallest Snow man that had ever been made and he looked so jolly and happy—just as if he had longed to be made out of the snow for some time."

"He reached so far up that when it grew dark, Mr. Moon came out and said:

"What is it I see? A man who is almost tall enough to talk to me. What fun!"

"And then how he grinned when he found out the man had been made out of snow!"

"I might of known there was some joke when I saw so many Brownies and Gnomes about," laughed the Moon.

"Well," said Peter Gnome, "will you give us bright light?"

"Yes, indeed," said Mr. Moon. "But tell me what you want it for."

"We want to sing songs and dance around our Snow man," said Peter Gnome.

"What's that you just said?" asked some little Star who came out blinking and twinkling. "We want to see the fun."

"We're going to sing songs around our Snow man," said Peter Gnome again.

"We'll help you give light, too," said the Stars.

"Splendid!" shouted the Gnomes and Brownies.

"So all the evening the Gnomes and the Brownies danced and sang songs around their Snow man, and he had been made so firmly that some of them climbed up and sat on his arms and even on his shoulders when they grew tired."

"How Mr. Moon did enjoy it! And the Stars were so happy and bright."

"But Billie Brownie was the proudest Brownie in Brownieland that night because he had suggested making the tall Snow man!"

A New Reason.

"Why are we admonished to cast our bread upon the waters?" asked the teacher of the juvenile Sunday school class.

"Cause the fish have to be fed," replied a small pupil.

Bargains on Shoes

We don't make a practice of running "bargain" ads because our prices are always so low that we cannot afford to reduce the prices, even for sale purposes.

But just now we have on hand a large number of pairs of best shoes for all kinds of wear, and we simply must convert the majority into immediate cash. Take a look into the window.

That is the sole reason for quoting exceptionally low prices you see in this ad.

We don't intend to keep these prices in effect very long—only for the short time necessary to reduce stock.

It is to your own interest to buy now and buy liberally for your whole family.

Short Stories in Abundance.
An industrious reader of short stories has selected 20 as the best by American authors of the 2,700 tales published in 1916 in 70 periodicals. And these 2,700 were probably the pick of 27,000 or more from which the editors had to choose. Many are offered, but few are chosen.

SCANDINAVIAN NEWS

SUMMARY OF IMPORTANT HAPPENINGS IN FAR OFF NORTHLAND.

ITEMS FROM THE OLD HOME

Resume of the Most Important Events in Sweden, Norway and Denmark—Of Interest to the Scandinavians in America.

DENMARK.

Sinking by a German submarine outside the prohibited zone and without examination of the 456-ton Danish steamer Ivgittut was reported by its commander on arrival at Copenhagen. The submarine commander left the Danish vessel's crew in their boats 150 miles from land.

The buildings on the famous stock farm Scholt, on the island of Lolland, were destroyed by fire, which started in the barn and spread with such rapidity that there was no use in trying to save the stock. About 200 cows were burned to death. Much grain was lost in the granary.

SWEDEN.

Per Erik Persson of Mon, the oldest locomotive engineer in Sweden, was ninety-four years old June 18. The Nora and Ervalla railway, the first one in Sweden, was built in the early fifties of the previous century. The first locomotive arrived in 1854. Persson was greatly interested in the wonderful machine and kept watching the work of the men who put it together. Ehrling was the name of the man who was to run it. But he was not a success. The engine and the train were derailed, and Ehrling escaped as by a miracle. The manager of the road, Sundler, ordered Ehrling to leave and never return. Now came Persson's turn to try his hand at the machine. It is said that Sundler felt so bad that he even shed tears. But there was a blacksmith shop close by, and Persson comforted the manager by explaining that the damage could be repaired. Forstling (The firstling), for this was the name of the engine, was put in shape, and Persson was engaged to run it for the princely salary of about 14 cents a day.

Election prospects, in the opinion of cautious business men, indicate liberal gains. Big business says: "We are not much interested. The radical elements may get hold of a little more power, but they won't know how to use it." The campaign promises to be bitter, and there already is in circulation an old Swedish proverb, saying: "Do you know when men lie the most?" Answer: "Before an election, during a war, and after a shooting party."

The Uddevalla, Vanersborg, and Herrljunga, a railway, has celebrated its fifty-year jubilee. Instead of making arrangements for showy festivities the company saved the money which such a blowout would have cost and distributed it as gifts of $13.50 to every employee who had been in the service of the company at least one year. Forty of the oldest men also received medals for faithful service.

The Stockholm town council is considering adding $27,000 to the $2,000,000 national fund for the relief of the Swedish unemployed during the war. Stone workers especially have suffered because they were compelled to quit work immediately after the war started. The number of small strikes has been increasing throughout the country, but because they are winning no general strike is probable.

The peace party in the Swedish riksdag has celebrated its twenty-five year jubilee as an organization. On that occasion the president of the "group" Baron Th. Adelsward, made an address on the work of the organization. The oldest member, Edward Wavrin-sky, entertained the other members by telling some of his experiences from the early history of the peace movement.

The committee on constitutional amendments has proposed to raise the salaries of the members of the riksdag from $325 to $500 a year.

Poles from all parts of ancient Poland recently had a congress in Stockholm for discussing the affairs of the new Poland.

Business men in Gothenburg have raised $3,000 for ferreting out the work of commercial spies in the city and the harbor.

Alumni of the Gothenburg commercial institute have raised $27,000 for the aid of poor students at the school.

A statue of King Karl X has been placed in front of the steps to the Nordiska museum in Stockholm. The king appears on horseback and is supposed to give order to his men to cross the belt on his famous campaign to Denmark. The statue weighs almost three and a half tons.

Many institutions of learning have dispensed with the usual ceremonies connected with the examinations because so many parents were unable to provide suitable clothes for the children for such a function.

NORWAY.

After a vigorous press campaign, started by Tidens Tegn, Premier Knutsen introduced an espionage bill in the storting. This bill has now become law, but it has not met the expectations of the public. The organization of the German spy system in Norway has reached such efficiency that it cannot easily be stamped out without resorting to means inconsistent with continued neutrality. The German spies have established headquarters in Christiania from which dispatches are distributed all over the country. In every harbor on the coast of Norway there are German spies who are able to communicate freely with the headquarters, because telegrams in code are still accepted at the Norwegian telegraph offices. Norwegian operators are thus forced to forward dispatches, making it possible for the Germans to destroy Norwegian steamers and lives. At a big wireless station outside of Bergen operators have almost every night listened to messages sent out by secret German stations on the coast and from German steamers lying immediately outside of the territorial waters. A great number of German steamers are now regularly plying between the ports in southern Norway and those in Flakmarken on account of the ravages of the U-boats. The chief mission of steamers in this traffic seems to be to act as connecting links between the German spies on the shore and the U-boats. The procedure is very simple. The German spy communicates with the captain of a German steamer while it is calling at a Norwegian port. Immediately afterwards the ship proceeds outside of the three-mile limit, puts up its wireless apparatus and delivers the message to the nearest submarine. It is also easy for the spies to secure positions on Norwegian steamers engaged in the coast trade because these sailors are exempted from the mustering control. Many Swedes, Finns, Danes or Danish speaking German citizens of Schleswig are employed in such capacity by the German government.

The Norwegian Railwaymen's union held an important meeting behind closed doors at Dramen. The most important resolutions passed were to the effect that the men go on a general strike at any time, but the government shall be notified three months ahead; and that during such strike the railway men shall try to prevent the government from employing new men. A deputation of five was elected to hand the resolutions to the legislative and executive branches of the government. There was one representative from the Swedish Railway union and one from the Danish Railway union. Both of them made speeches pointing out that the governments of Sweden and Denmark had failed to see the justice of the demands of the railway men of those countries, and for that reason the men who have to abandon the old policy of making petitions and waiting for results indefinitely. Henceforth they would have to follow the old methods of labor unions.

An account of the German plot to blow up Norwegian steamships was given in the storting June 23 by Foreign Minister Ihlen. M. Ihlen said the bombs were sent to Norway by the German foreign office by means of a messenger dispatched to the German legation in Christiania. The Norwegian legation in Berlin had been ordered to make a sharp protest against this violation of Norwegian territory. Norway, the foreign minister said, was now awaiting Germany's reply. After the examination of the messenger had been concluded he was handed over to Germany on condition that action be taken against him there and that he should not be used again as a messenger to Norway.

The Christiania Morgenbladet has been rather friendly to the Germans, that is to say, as compared with the other newspapers. But even Morgenbladet balks at the latest attempts to blow up Norwegian ships. The paper asks the Germans if they are going to compel Norway to join the allies, adding that a naval basis on the coast of Norway would give the Americans and the other allies a tremendous advantage. The Morgenbladet declares that the bomb plot was one of the worst of the many blunders which the Germans have made, and that it tended to wipe out the last traces of pro-German sympathy in Norway.

According to the tax lists the value of the farm lands of Norway increased about 50 per cent during the five-year period ending in 1916.

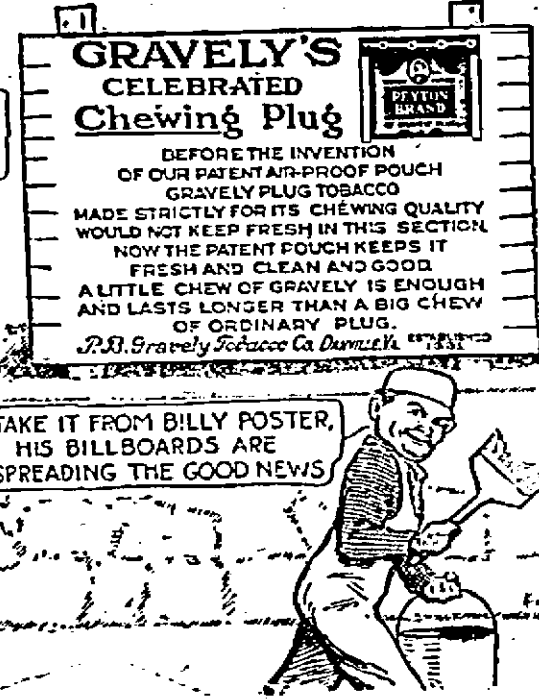

Early in June King V. Christian of Denmark paid a two days' visit to the king of Norway. The royal guest spent the nights at the Bygd royal palace.

The Nordland Oil and Stock Feed factory at Svolvær was destroyed by fire. The loss was several hundred thousand kroner. The destruction of the plant will be a hard blow to the farmers who were in the habit of obtaining "herring meal" for their stock from this plant.

It is reported that a Norwegian syndicate, backed by ample capital, is going to send at least 50 men to gather gold from the bottoms of certain rivers in northern Finland.

Doings at Lenox and Jennings, July 4th.

This 4th was one of the biggest 4ths ever celebrated in our small towns. About 340 people from Crandon, South Crandon, Siding 1, 2, 3 and 4 and Nashville, Pearson, Elcho and Post Lake turned out.

The day was spent as follows:

9 a. m. a clown parade and car; all people took place in the parade.

Pony races, and many other races.

After the races, Lenox and Pearson played ball; game was in favor of Lenox.

In the afternoon a dance in Wolfgram's hall.

7:30 p. m. Dance started in Abe Lewis hall which lasted all night.

Everybody enjoyed themselves.

Sheriffs Frank Boomer, Victor Loss and Geo. Perlarski managed the people very nicely. Much credit is given to the business men, for the management of the program during the day. Following were the winners of the pony races: Louis Hoberaat Jr. won first prize with Chas. Ackley's pony. 2nd and third were won by Gibson Bros. of Crandon. The free for all race was won by Al Porter; second by Chas. Ackley. The judges for the races were Mr. Reach of Pelican Lake and Ernest Mecikalski.

A LITTLE SCIENCE NOW AND THEN
"See It During Swine Week"
IS HELPFUL IN THE FEEDING PEN

NORMAL GROWTH ON CORN AND SALTS.
Pig Fed Corn and Gluten Feed, With Salts Added, Made Thrifty and Normal Growth.

Although swine breeders always aim to keep up with the latest and best "tips" afforded by carefully conducted feeding experiments, few realize fully the importance of the feeding tests now under way at the agricultural experiment station of the University of Wisconsin. In co-operation with the animal husbandry department, E. B. Hart and E. V. McCollum, agricultural chemists, are carrying on a series of experiments to determine the value of proteins from various sources for long-continued growth in swine.

Visitors to the College of Agriculture during swine week in February will be invited to look over the work done to develop swine raising and feeding in this state.

Simple Dishes That Are Often Poorly Served

By Nellie Maxwell of the Department of Farmers' Institutes of the University of Wisconsin

Of the common foods, toast, eggs, coffee, or steak, it is amazing the variation that can be made with them and have them all spoiled. There are many men who know how to prepare and serve these exceptionally well, to say nothing of the legion who can tell just how they should be done, but the modus operandi being all in their heads.

It is sad, but too true that a nicely cooked steak, a well-prepared egg, a crisp piece of toast, and a fine well-flavored cup of steaming hot coffee, are the exception rather than the usual.

It is quite as important that our boys as well as our girls should be taught the simple art of preparing plain common foods acceptably, for one never knows when such knowledge will be of inestimable value.

The best way to cook steak is to broil it over coals; the next best way is to pan broil it by having a smooth iron frying pan, smoking hot, and then grease it lightly, with a piece of suet, lay in the steak, cut from an inch and a half to two inches, turn it every few seconds to insure the searing over of the meat, to save the juices and flavor, then when well seared cooked until it is done to the taste, salting it and using the seasonings after it is on the platter or just before. Beefsteak is best served slightly rare, as then it is more easily digested. A strong fierce heat at first in all cooking of steaks, then a more moderate heat to finish the cooking. A steak that is put into a cold pan and allowed to simmer and stew out all the juice and flavor before the pan is hot, is wasteful, unpalatable and unwholesome.

One rarely gets a good pork chop. They are either underdone which is highly objectionable, or else they are cooked until the flavor is all dried out of them. A good method to use which will result in a perfectly well-cooked chop, nicely flavored and juicy, is to place them with a tablespoonful or two of boiling water in the frying pan, par boil them turning them often and do not cover. In a few minutes the water will be boiled away, the chops will be thoroughly steamed and then they will be browned quickly when they will be well done and palatable.

When it is found necessary to keep baked potatoes for a late corner, crack them open allowing the steam to escape, and put them back in the oven, they will keep well for another fifteen or twenty minutes. They may be cut open, seasoned and returned to the shell and keep still longer, if one cares to take the time to thus prepare them.

most easily digested by the invalid. In poaching eggs, drop them into boiling water, cover and immediately remove from the heat. When the white is opaque, remove them. In baking eggs, egg dishes, like custards, always set the custard cups or dish into a hot water bath when baking them or when cooking on the top of the stove as the direct heat will overcook the custards.

Toast. One of the first things to learn in making toast as well as coffee or in fact any other dish is to tell a perfect dish. Too many cooks do not know what a perfect cupful of coffee or a good piece of toast is, and the worst of the whole matter is, that they don't know that they don't know.

The object of toasting bread is to make it more easily digested and to give it a different flavor. In toasting bread the starch is changed to dextrine, the first stage in the digestion of starch. Bread should be cut about three-quarters of an inch thick, placed in the oven for the first moisture to be driven off, then toast quickly a golden brown. Bread thus prepared will be well cooked through, dry and crisp, but not tasteless. A piece of buttered toast that is moist or soggy in the center is a failure as far as food is concerned as it is more unwholesome than a piece of bread untoasted. Bread that is too fresh will be soggy when toasted.

A Good Cup of Coffee. First choose your coffee and when a brand or blend is found that suits, continue to use that kind. A good cupful of coffee cannot be made of cheap, rank coffee. If poor coffee is present in any quantity, the coffee will have an unpleasant, rank odor or taste. Choose a good brand of coffee and grind it at home. If a percolator is used it must be finely ground. Grind the coffee just before using or keep it in a tight well-covered can if ground, so not to lose its aroma and flavor. A tablespoonful of coffee to a cupful of boiling water is the usual strength. Let it cook in the percolator until of a beautiful amber color when it is ready to serve. If the coffee is prepared in an ordinary pot, let it be a sweet, well-aired and clean one. A bit of sourdoughs no larger than a bean will spoil a whole pot of coffee. Put in the coffee with egg, or not, a pinch of salt and boiling water, let boil up three times, with the top open, then let stand to steep for five minutes on the back part of the stove. Coffee should not stand on its ground, as that is often the cause of bitter, poor-flavored coffee.

A delicious cupful of coffee may be made in a clean saucepan, but the percolated coffee is considered the most wholesome. Serve cream or scalded milk with coffee. The best-made coffee in the world may be spoiled by careless serving.

FLOORS OF CHICKEN HOUSES

Well to Remove Two or Three Inches of Contaminated Dirt and Replace With Fine Sand.

If the floors in your poultry house are of dirt it will be well to remove two or three inches, which has become soiled and contaminated, and replace with fresh light sand if obtainable. This will go a long way toward keeping the flock in health.

DADDY'S EVENING FAIRY TALE

MICE MOVE

"It's a cold day," said Mr. Mouse. "It's a very cold day," said Mrs. Mouse.

"We'd better look for a new home I think," said Mr. Mouse. "The Children will freeze where we are now, and besides there isn't enough good food."

"I wonder what has happened to the food lately," said Mrs. Mouse.

"My dear," said Mr. Mouse, "the People are moving. They're going to some warm spot where the birds sing and where there is green grass. I heard one of them say so the other day when I was hiding in the pantry."

"Then by all means we'd better move," said Mrs. Mouse. "Yes," said Mr. Mouse, "and they're not getting in any fresh food at all. They run out of things—important things such as cheese, and the Cook says, 'We don't need any more of that. The time is so short now. And it won't stay fresh.' As if they need worry about it staying fresh. We'd eat it up first. They don't appreciate us, and it's very unfortunate."

"It certainly is," agreed Mrs. Mouse. "But where have you thought of moving to?"

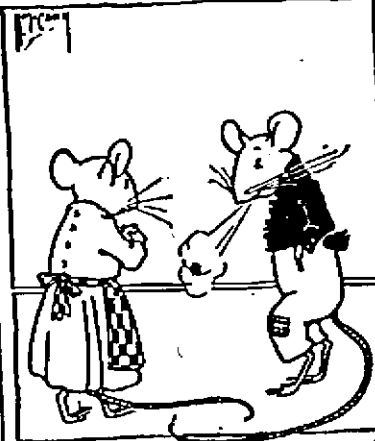

"There is a large house next door and there are a good many Children. I should imagine they would keep plenty of good things to eat. Children like nice food. And the Children go to school, so the People will not move away in school time. It's school time you know until the hot weather comes and we needn't worry about that time as yet."

"No, that's too far ahead for a Mouse to think," said Mrs. Mouse. "But tell me, do you know if they keep a Cat or not? Sometimes Children are very fond of Cats."

"My dear," said Mr. Mouse in a hurt and injured tone, "do you suppose for one moment that I would think of going to a new home where there was a Cat. I'm too wise a Mouse for that. It would be the most foolish thing I could do. No, they haven't a Cat. They're sensible People. They have good food, a nice Cook, and no Cat!"

"You don't think the Cook looks like the sort who would set a trap, do you?" asked Mrs. Mouse.

"That is one thing, my dear, about which we can never tell. But she looks rather goodnatured and easy go-

"It's a Cold Day," said Mr. Mouse.

In fact, I think it will be an excellent home."

"It sounds very nice," said Mrs. Mouse. "I will call the Children."

"Where are they now?" asked Mr. Mouse. "They're playing hide-and-go-seek in the coal bin—the precious little things," said Mrs. Mouse affectionately.

"Mickey, Mickey, Mickey," called Mr. Mouse. "Yes, Papa," squealed the Mice. "Come here," called Mr. Mouse. And along came the Mice scampering from the coal bin to the part of the Cellar where Mr. and Mrs. Mouse had been discussing their plans.

"Are we to have dinner?" asked the Mice. "I'd love a piece of cheese," said one little Mouse.

"If you aren't careful," said Mr. Mouse, "you may get caught in a trap through that love of cheese which you have."

"Oh, I'll be careful, Papa," said the little Mouse.

"Be sure you are," said Mr. Mouse, "for traps are very dangerous things. But what I've called you all here for is because we're going to move."

"Where?" squealed all the Mice. "Next door, in the big house. We'll go through the Cellar so no one will see us."

"Oh," said one little Mouse, "the Grey Mouse two doors from here said that would be a wonderful home. He wanted his family to move, but they wouldn't because they said they were pretty safe and lucky where they were."

"Then you'd all like to move?" asked Mr. Mouse.

"We're ready," said the little Mice. "Off we go, then," said Mr. Mouse, and followed by Mrs. Mouse and the Mice Children, he moved to the next house, where the People had no Cat, and where they could stay all winter if they were wise and steered clear of dangerous traps with the smell of cheese!"

Save the Milk Bottles

Don't hold or break them. Send them back to your dealer as quickly as possible and help to keep down the cost of milk.

IT COSTS the Milk Dealers a large sum annually to keep up the normal supply of milk bottles.

The larger part of this money goes to replace bottles that are smashed from pure "cussedness" or are held by the housewife and used for other purposes.

That's not just to yourself or to the thousands of others who use milk daily. It's tying up the source of supply.

Every time that you meet with a milk bottle in your pantry or store-room that is being used as a retainer for things other than milk, you are doing an injustice to your own good common sense, as well as to your neighbor.

Dealers are nearly at their wit's end, trying to find bottles enough to supply their daily trade. This is especially true of those who sell a large number of pints, because pint bottles are almost impossible to get.

Bottle factories everywhere are complaining that they cannot get cars to draw the raw material, and that when they do get stock enough for shipment, they are held up on transportation.

Orders given by dealers sixty days ago are still unfulfilled. The local shortage is becoming pronounced and there will be a panic among consumers soon if the bottles are not returned.

If you want the good, safe service that you have been getting heretofore, make it possible for your dealer to give it. Don't tie his hands, but render him every assistance possible, by returning empty milk bottles to him at the earliest possible moment.

Former Baptist Pastor Says He Intends To Work And Pay Debts

St. Paul, Minn., July 9, 1917. New North.

Rhineland, Wis. After attending the Moody Bible Conference at Cedar Lake, Indiana, Paul Bada, the pastor of the Moody church of Chicago, asked me to accompany him to St. Paul to help in the evangelistic services at that city. However, I do not intend to continue in the work, for religion begins at home and I don't want any one to get the impression that I am going around the country four-flushing and having obligations in the old home town. I have therefore written a certain firm for a position and expect to arrive in Rhineland next week with Mrs. Wedge and the boy. It may take one year, it may take five years for me to settle every obligation and prove by a consistent, humble, hard working Christian life that I have the right kind of Christianity, but by God's grace I'll do it.

Then it will be time for me to accept these large opportunities in cities. But till then my motto is going to be "made good at home first."

This time I am not coming as a Baptist, but just a man, who has made mistakes and profited by them and who for the good of the young men of Rhineland and the boys who may have lost some faith by their stories they have heard, I'm coming back to live the life. Instead of just preaching about it, I am going to try to live it, be a friend to all the churches that honor Christ and cooperate in every way possible for the best interests of Rhineland.

Thanking your paper for many kindnesses of the past I am yours,

FRED WEDGE, 1853 Marshall Ave., St. Paul, Minn.

ALMA BECK, Contralto

ALMA BECK has twice toured the United States as soloist with the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra. She has sung in the oratorio, "Elijah," with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra. She also has sung in the "Messiah," "Samson and Delilah" and has been called one of the best interpreters of Queen Jezebel in the country by some of the metropolitan dailies. She will sing in two concerts here the third day of the chautauqua. The Pathe Company has made records of her solos. Miss Beck is supported by the Hahn Company—Adolph and Mrs. Hahn—violin duo artists. Their violins were made by the celebrated Italian master, Testori, in 1690 and 1730, and are perfectly matched for duet work. Violin duet accompaniment is rare, for to be good at all the violins must be matched in tone and the artists must have had long experience together. These Mr. and Mrs. Hahn have. Mr. Hahn toured both Europe and America in concert work, and Mrs. Hahn has made several continental tours, one of which was with the Welsh Prize Singers.

BABIES MURDERED IN CHINA

One Mother Laughingly Admitted She Had "Disposed Of" Seven of Her Nine Daughters.

A Chinese mother told me the other day that she had disposed of seven of her own daughters. She told it with a laugh! She had borne nine; had given away two, and had drowned the other seven in the slop bucket.

When I tried to find some appeal to conscience—to a sense of wrong—it simply was not there. And the pastor's wife, who was with me at the time, when I asked her what these people do regard a sin, said, "Why, nothing! They do not think anything is wrong! If they carry the idols round twice a year they may do as they like."

I went home with this murderess and found her sweet, young daughter-in-law, who has studied a little in our schools, very sad and heartbroken because her two little daughters had been killed at birth or thrown away by their father. Of course, the mother-in-law had also insisted upon this. Her one son had been killed when five days old by the malpractice of the midwife, who had taken him in hand when some baby ailments developed, and turned his head, hands and breast with live coals. So the poor little mother was left childless.

"My little baby girls cling to my heart right and day!" she cried. "I don't know what became of them. I loved them just as I loved the boy, all the time they were with me before they were born. I wanted them so! But he was unwilling, so they had to die," and she buried her face in her hands.—Evelyn W. Siles, in World Outlook.

Lecturer Puts Scientists and Detectives in One Class—Uses Harvey as an Illustration.

The analogy between the working of pumps for motor-engines and those which keep the human heart beating was the subject of a lecture by a Scottish doctor, "Living Pumps" was its title. He traced the steps which led to Harvey's great discovery of the secret of circulation, and by the help of ingenious models he showed how the blood flowed through the stomach, the liver, and the heart, and went to the nourishing of the limbs. Laying bare the heart of "Jack the Giant-Killer"—a model, he explained the marvelous self-regulating mechanism by which it supplies the muscular engines of the body with a "combustion" mixture and the rest of the tissues with sustenance. SONG OF WAR

The last issue of the Bruce News-Letter contained the following poem written by Harry Baxter, a former resident of Bruce, who is now with the Canadian troops on the firing line, "somewhere in France." If I had a pack of fifty pounds And it wasn't hotter than hell— If I wasn't lugging a hundred rounds And a dozen bombs as well, If only I had a good cool drink And the sweat would keep out of my eyes, Truly, I'd most be tempted to think That France was a Paradise. But I don't think any such blooming thing I think of a "guy" I know And a little girl that used to sing In the evenings long ago. He is too busy making the good old dough To bother with belt and gun And to him she'll sing in the evening's glow When his good day's work is done. And he'll court her smile in the ardent hope Of a kiss or two, or three And he'll whisper to her the same old dope That she used to hear from me. But I'll hear a song myself tonight. A song from throats of steel That will rend the darkness with lurid light And make the Heavens reel. And I think of a pair of dim old eyes That are looking across the sea And while the life light in them lies I know they will look for me And I think of that sort of superior guy Who says, "It's not up to me Whether the right or wrong shall live or die In countries across the sea Let those who like, horn into the fray I'll let the heathen rage, For if I can manage to stay away I may live to a ripe old age." And I think of things with human parts That live in my native land Who are hoping deep in their craven hearts That "Fritz" gets the upper hand.

I've more respect for that brutal band Who fight in the Devils defence, Who can say at least, that they've got the sand, To back up their arguments. But I hate to see a big ugly whelp Murder and slash and burn, I hate to hear anyone yelling for help While I'm able to do my turn. And when they sneer at the good old land That's to blame for raising me I get an itching within my hand For the feel of a 30-3. It isn't nice to see the flies At work in a gaping wound. Or the sightless stare of a dead man's eyes Looking up from the bloody ground It is not nice when you have to scrape Your best friend off your clothes And Death in every horrible shape Is under your very nose. But the Germans wanted this kind of stuff! Horror and blood and tears To last them a hundred years. And we will well see that they get enough In the mighty ranks of the silent slain There is gallant company For those who'll never put out again For their homes across the sea. In peaceful fields where ordered ranks Await the Eternal will The violets grow on the mossy banks And it is still there, very still. And if every human immortal soul Goes up to a Heavenly King I think their names will be on His roll At that late mustering.

PINE LAKE GRANGE

Pine Lake Grange No. 575 met Thursday evening, July 5th, with twenty-one present. Brother Howe, and Sisters Howe and Snyder were visiting members. We enjoyed an excellent program. Our new sashes for the officers were received with hearty approval by those present. At our next meeting July 19th, the roll call will be "Tell one good reason why you enjoy coming to the Grange."

HETH CARNIVAL IS NOT COMING

Company Unable To Get Transportation And Cancels Date Here

Heth's United Shows will not exhibit in Rhineland. This carnival company, which secured a city license to appear here during the week of July 16, has cancelled the engagement because it is impossible to secure transportation into this city. Officials of both the Soo and Northwestern lines stated a few days ago that it would be impossible for them to agree to handle any amusement trains this summer in this part of the state and in the iron and copper country. Owing to this decision several large circuses and carnival companies, which intended to show northern Wisconsin and upper Michigan this summer, have abandoned their plans.

On account of the need for all locomotives and other equipment for freight service and the increased ore business the railroads are in no position to cater to shows.

ARBOR VITAE RESIDENT DEAD

The remains of the late Oliver Grenier, of Arbor Vitae, who passed away at the home of his daughter, at Schofield Sunday evening, will arrive in this city tomorrow morning and services will be conducted at the St. Francis Xavier church. Rev. Fr. Owen to have charge. Interment will take place in the local Catholic cemetery.

Mr. Grenier, who was a resident of Arbor Vitae and was well and favorably known in this city, passed away at 7 o'clock last evening. He leaves one son in Arbor Vitae, and two sons, John and Frank, of Rose Lake, Idaho; a daughter, Mrs. Rhode, of Skykomish, Wash.; and another daughter Mrs. Thresher of Schofield.—Merrill Herald.

LET NO MILK BE WASTED Not all the causes for spoiled milk can be charged against the dairyman. Large quantities of good milk have been spoiled in the home by improper treatment. Had consumers always observed the following simple rules in taking care of daily milk deliveries during warm weather, much of the product could have been kept sweet and wholesome.

1. Milk must not stand in a warm place for any length of time, but should be put in a clean ice-box or refrigerator as soon as possible.
2. Keep milk or cream in the original package until needed.
3. Carefully wipe the mouth of the bottle before pouring milk or cream from it.
4. Do not pour back into the bottle any milk or cream which has been exposed to the air.
5. Keep the bottle covered with a cap or inverted tumbler as long as any milk remains in it.
6. Do not expose uncovered milk in a refrigerator holding foods having a strong odor.
7. Wash milk bottles as soon as empty and do not use such containers for any other purpose. Use pure water, and do not wipe with a dish towel. Scalding and air drying are better.
8. In case of contagious disease, return no milk bottles to the dairy man without the permission of the health officer.

Remember that skim milk is a valuable food, containing all the nourishing elements of whole milk except fat or cream. Sour milk can be used with soda in making hot breads, or it can be turned into cottage cheese or clabber. Never waste milk in any form.—E. H. Farrington, Dairy School, University of Wisconsin.

OFFICERS QUOTA EXCEEDED The War department authorizes the following:

"According to present estimates in the adjutant general's office the number of men who will apply for admission in the new series of officers' training camps will greatly exceed the quota of 16,000 allowed for the whole country. The response to the call has exceeded all expectations and the qualities of the applicants, so far, has been very high.

"The war department is again laying stress upon the 'square deal' policy which will be enforced absolutely in fitting men for commissions in the new National Army. The system of making officers is a merit system pure and simple. Let a man show his fitness to command soldiers, and who he is and who his friends happen to be will count for nothing. In the matter of promotion his only friends will sit on the boards who examine on the score of manhood and mentality."

STRAWBERRIES LATE July strawberries from the Bayfield county region were not to be had this season on July 4th because of the late spring and cool weather during early summer. The berry crop is about two weeks late. On other seasons the berry crop was at its best on July 4th but this season it will be at least two weeks late. The berries are looking fine but warm weather is needed to ripen the crop.—Washburn Times.

HART'S

The Store That Saves You Money

FOURTH OF JULY BUSINESS GOOD

Fourth of July business in this city, according to the merchants, was exceptionally good, especially among fireworks dealers, restaurant, hotel men, candy and ice cream dealers. The public seemed to have plenty of money and spent it freely. The celebration here was extensively advertised and brought a large number of people to the city from neighboring towns. From these strangers the restaurants and hotels received a liberal patronage. Less than half a dozen stores handled fireworks but everything in this line was practically sold out on the night of July 3rd. By noon on the Fourth it was impossible to buy even a stick of punk. Ice cream parlors had a big trade and there was also a brisk demand for fruit and candy.

DRIVES AUTO WHILE DRUNK

For driving an automobile while intoxicated H. Swickey was fined $15 and costs in Judge C. F. Smith's court Friday. John O'Brien, assistant chief of police, made the arrest. There is a state law against driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor and had Swickey been arrested on a state warrant he could have been sent to the penitentiary had the court so willed.

CHALLENGE FROM CASSIAN SHOT

Cassian, Wis., July 6, 1917.

Editor New North:

I was pained somewhat on the 4th by seeing the Cassian, baseball team defeated by a base-ball team from Rhineland in the game played at Camp Ruth. I think the rough, stony ground on which the game was played was to blame for the defeat as most of our men were big, heavy, broad shouldered fellows and had to be a little careful not to fall on the stones while some of the Rhinelander boys were as spry as red squirrels and not much bigger. If the boy who was catcher on the Rhinelander team will pick up potatoes for me next October he may consider himself hired right now. I am sure that he can pick up from three hundred to seven hundred bushels of Green Mountain potatoes every day. I used to play ball myself but now I can't run like I could once, so have taken to rifle shooting for pastime. Instead, if Rhineland has a rifle shot who will shoot "gun for gun" with me I would like to hear from him. My rifle is 22 H. P. Savage with gold head and peep sights and a "soft" trigger and is worth thirty dollars but I would risk it on a single shot. I like to shoot off hand about 40 to 50 rods. If no man can be found who will risk his rifle against mine on a single shot, then if a good bunch of sportsmen will come here with rifles and each take a shot I will give my rifle to the one who makes the best shot provided I have one shot also to try to save the gun.

3,201 ALIEN ENEMIES

Correct figures for Wisconsin aliens and alien enemies were announced from Madison on Monday. The official report from Washington on the state's registration gave a much larger number of alien enemies than aliens, the error being due to the reversal of the respective columns of figures. The correct figures are: Alien non-enemies, 23,522; alien enemies, 3,401.

FARM POULTRY

PACK CHICKENS FOR MARKET

Methods Recommended by Specialists of Agricultural Department—Chill Every Fowl.

Poultry packers are urged by the specialists of the agricultural department to give unusual attention to preparing and packing birds for shipment, particularly if the weather is mild. The following methods are recommended:

1. Keep the holding batteries for your incoming stock clean, well aired, and free from vermin, and see that the chickens have plenty of fresh water and plenty to eat.
2. Don't kill a chicken when the crop is full of feed. Give the chicken only water for 24 hours before it is killed. Food in the crop or in the intestines of a dressed chicken causes loss of flavor and hastens decay, which more than offsets any gain from extra weight.

3. Good bleeding is absolutely essential to a good appearance on the market and retards decay.

4. Hang the chicken by both feet while picking. Hanging by one leg spoils the shape of the bird. Picking on the lap gets the skin dirty and hastens decay.

5. Dry pick if possible. Scalding is particularly undesirable because it hastens decay.

6. Chill every dressed bird until the body temperature is below 35 degrees F. Never pack or ship an imperfectly chilled bird. More decay is due to imperfect chilling than to any other single factor in dressing. Dry chill, if possible. Chickens cooled in water lose flavor, decay sooner, will not cold-store as satisfactorily as dry-chilled, and are in every way more undesirable on the market. Refrigerator cars will carry well-chilled goods in good condition, but they cannot chill warm goods to a sufficiently low temperature.

7. Pack in boxes or small kegs whenever possible. A large barrel makes an undesirable package, because where poultry is packed in large masses the weight of the upper layers crushes the birds at the bottom.

8. Line all packages with parchment paper and cover the top of the poultry before the lid is put on.

9. Wrap every head in suitable paper so that blood from one bird will not mar the appearance of another.

10. Use only good refrigerator cars and see that they are in good order. Ice and salt the car 24 hours before loading. The car, at the end of 24 hours should show a temperature below 40 degrees F. at a point four feet above the floor and between the doors.

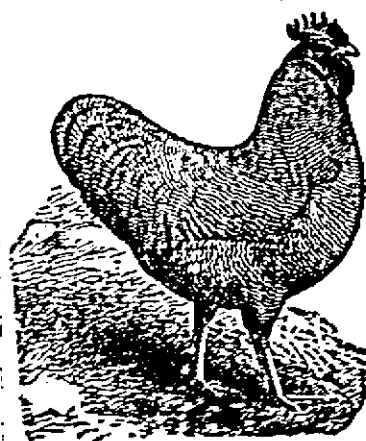

MATE UP PENS FOR HATCHING

Seasonable Hints Applicable to Chicken Yard Given by Expert of Colorado Station.

(By C. S. ANDERSON, Colorado Agricultural College, Fort Collins.)

Now is the time to mate up the breeding pens for hatching eggs in February. Make the final culling, retaining only the strongest, thriftiest individuals.

See that these layers are receiving a good laying ration, supplying plenty of protein, green feed and oyster shells. This is the time to feed the surplus vegetables that are stored away in the cellar. A cabbage head suspended by strings, a couple of feet from the floor, will be relished by the hens. Be sure you are giving them plenty of exercise. Whole grain should be fed in a ten-inch litter.

Clean up the incubator and get it in running order. It might be advisable to run a trial hatch before the season opens.

There is always some new equipment such as brooders and feed hoppers, and this is the time to order all such supplies.

Have you considered any additions to your poultry yard? A small trial with ducks, geese, turkeys, capons or pigeons might prove profitable.

DADDY'S EVENING FAIRY TALE

SNOW KING.

"What a hard snowstorm we have had today," said Nick, as Daddy came in to tell them his usual evening story.

"It was lots of fun though, Daddy," said Nancy. "We built a snow fort and had a fine snow-ball fight. The snow was so soft it couldn't hurt, and it was just lots of fun."

"Well," said Daddy, "today was the Snow King's birthday."

"Whose birthday?" exclaimed Nick.

"Are you going to tell us about it?" asked Nancy.

"Would you like to hear about his birthday party?" Daddy asked.

"Indeed we would," said both the children. So Daddy commenced.

"Mr. Snow King was up in the sky which was looking just as if there would be a regular snowstorm—a good hard one."

"Down below he saw the Fairy Queen and the little Fairies playing in the woods."

"Hello, Fairy Queen! Hello, little Fairies," he said.

"Why hello, Mr. Snow King," they called together as they saw him looking down at them.

"Would you like to give a birthday party?" he asked.

"Is it your birthday?" asked the Fairy Queen.

"Yes," said Mr. Snow King. "Just this very day last year I came down here and had a party. Don't you remember? And so it's my birthday—that is if I come down the same way this year."

"Oh yes, we remember," said the Fairy Queen. "By all means we'll give you a birthday party."

"All right," said the Snow King. "I shall come right down."

"Will you bring your children?" asked the Fairy Queen. "We'd love to have them."

"I can't come without them very well so I'm glad you want them," said the Snow King. "Watch us come."

"Just then it began to snow ever and ever so hard. The Snow King was coming down to the Earth for his birthday party. The little Fairies laughed and danced as the snow fell."

"Of course with the Snow King came his children, the Snow Flakes. They fell this way and that. They jumped on the trees and they played about on the ground."

"Then they played a lovely game of covering each other up with snow. That is the favorite game of the Snow Flakes, and of course when they play it the snow grows deeper and deeper. For so much snow has to keep on falling."

"The more that falls, the more they need to fall in order to cover the last lot of Snow Flakes, and the Snow King is about everywhere watching the fun."

"The Fairies played in the snow and they played a game with the Snow Flakes. For as the Snow Flakes would cover each other up, the Fairies would toss up the snow with their hands and with their wands, and the Snow Flakes would have to begin all over again trying to cover up the ones which had been already covered once."

"The Grown-Ups said, 'What a snowstorm we are having! We will have to have our walks cleared off and the Snow King will have to come out. For it is getting so deep no one can walk!'"

"That made the Snow King laugh, for he doesn't consider he has a real birthday party unless the snow comes down all day long. His parties last some time, you see."

"The Fairies had snow-ball fights, they built forts, they built snowmen, and the old Snow King was delighted."

"Then you do like me?" he asked.

"We love you," said the Fairies.

"You make the winter so beautiful," said the Fairy Queen.

"Then you do wish me many happy returns of the day, eh?" he said.

"We certainly do," said the Fairies.

"Ah, then we'll have a birthday party again soon," said the Snow King, "but now we must be off," and the Snow King stopped and the flakes stopped falling. But the Fairies knew that they would come back again."

Fairies Played in the Snow.

John Edward and his mother had been invited out to dinner. The hostess was fortunate in having a great many things that little folks like—chicken pie and so on. The meal was progressing merrily. Conversation had lagged for a minute, and John Edward expressed his satisfaction thus:

"Well, mother, we're fortunate in one thing. All the folks we know are good cooks.—Indianapolis News.

OUR SERVICE

And What It Means To You

YOU ARE RUSHED FOR TIME---A MACHINE PART BREAKS---AND THEN

Every Hour Delay Counts. Your Crop Is In Peril. How Soon Can You Get Repairs?

If you bought your farm implements from pictures in a book, your distress can easily be pictured, when the rush of work is on and an important machine part breaks.

You can see the repair parts, too, in pictures, but you can't see the repairs themselves—not for days—days when you can almost feel real money slipping from you.

We sell implements that are built in every part to stand the strains of operation. They have made their great name in the world because of their quality. Yet, sometimes in the rush of work, when men and machines are overtaxed, even our implements may need repairs.

Our service to you takes care of these accidents—quickly. We carry repairs in stock—right here among you. Repairs not carried, we get in a jiffy. Getting repairs to you in a hurry is one of the special features that make our service especially profitable to you.

If one of our implements should happen to break, phone us promptly, just as you would phone your doctor when a bodily injury occurs. You will find that our repair service saves you dollars when time means dollars.
